Farm Storage Loans Offered On Peanuts

Milam County peanut growers are assured an average support price of not less than $230.56 per ton for their 1951 crop quota peanuts. This is $14.56 higher than the average support price for the 1950 crop. This assurance comes from Paul C. Graves, Chairman of the Milam County Production and Marketing Administration Committee.

According to Mr. Graves, the base grade minimum support price is $225 for Spanish type peanuts containing 70 per cent sound mature kernels. Premiums or discounts for grades above or below base grades and discounts for damage and foreign materials are provided.

Peanuts containing more than seven per cent damage, 15 per cent foreign material and 9 per cent moisture will not be eligible for price support. Mr. Graves said. Quota peanuts which do not contain excessive damage, moisture or foreign material, produced on a farm on which the 1951 picked and threshed acreage does not exceed the allotment are eligible for price support.

The farmer may grow up to his 1947 acreage (1948 acreage if there is no 1947 acreage on the farm) and still be entitled to price support for his quota peanuts, if he delivers his excess peanuts for crushing for oil.

Price to farmers, the chairman explains, will be supported by means of purchases of farmers stock peanuts by warehouses and shellers operating under agreements or contracts with CCC. Farm storage loans may also be offered.

CAMERON MAN STARS IN DRAMATIC PRODUCTION AT AUSTIN COLLEGE

Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson of Cameron, shown above with Miss Sue Braden, portrayed the leading role in "The Late Christopher Bean," a three act dramatic comedy at Austin College, Sherman, that was presented in the college auditorium Saturday May 26.

Mr. Johnson is president of the Blackfriar Dramatic Club at the college. He starred in the role as Dr. Haggett, a story of turmoil that surrounds a group of paintings left by the late Christopher Bean. He dramatically presented the typical greed for money and the fortune that Dr. Haggett expected to get from the sale of the painting, only to discover that Mr. Bean has a widow who becomes the sole owner of all the famous paintings which upsets his plans as well as his desire for money. Miss Braden plays the role of the widow whose name is Abbie.

The comedy was presented recently at the Perrin ARIR Base near Sherman to a capacity crowd. This was the major production at the college this year and the dramatic club has worked diligently during the past year toward the advancement of college drama.

The presentation was under the direction of Paul Beardsley of the College Dramatic Department.

Robert plans to leave within a few days for San Francisco where he will attend a Naval Training School for several weeks this summer.

BABY LINDA

BLUE BABY—Little Linda Sweaks is shown above as she prepares for her second heart operation. She will be taken to the Children's Hospital in Dallas, June 25 where on June 27 she will undergo surgery. Two years ago, on June 22 little Linda had her first operation at the hospital there.

At that time she was 19 months old. Now, nearly two years have passed and Baby Linda has gained almost five pounds. She is not strong like other children and the doctor says she must have another operation on her heart. Baby Linda visited the Herald Office Monday with her mother to tell us that she is going to Dallas where the doctor "will make me strong so I can play without getting tired and won't fall down."

Following is an article taken from the Hearne Democrat, owned and published by Ted Rickenbacker:

SECOND OPERATION IS NECESSARY FOR "BLUE BABY" FROM HEARNE

Little Linda Sue Sweaks, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sweaks who live at 405 Moss St. in Hearne, is facing the second crisis in her young life—next month she is scheduled to undergo her second delicate operation to correct a serious heart ailment.

Baby Linda is a "Blue Baby." This means, doctors say, that she has a congenital heart which produces her serious condition. The condition can be corrected by surgery, but if it is not, then Linda's chance of living is very slight, medical authorities agree.

Two years ago, when Linda underwent her first operation, it was hoped that the condition would be corrected—now, however, it has been found that another operation is vitally necessary.

Linda moved to Hearne with her parents from Cameron. Her father is employed by the Etheredge Plumbing Shop and both parents have been saving every penny they can toward the costly operation that may save Linda's life. They have been unable to save enough money to pay all of the costs of the operation.

Prior to the operation two years ago, when Linda lived in Cameron, the people there contributed a large sum of money (more than $1300) to defray the costs of the operation in a Dallas hospital (The nature of the operation is such that special equipment, private room and the services of a specialist are vital.)

Mr. and Mrs. Sweaks have made arrangements this time for paying nearly all of the expenses themselves, with the money they have saved and by concessions made by the specialist, they are able to finance all but $500 (Turn To Page Eight)

Rites Held For Floyd Bussa At Liberty

Floyd Bussa, 63, drowned in Little River near the Holtsclaw Bridge Tuesday afternoon, May 29.

Mr. Bussa was chopping cotton on the Kamenicky farm and left the field to get a drink at the river around 2:30 P. M. The river had been on a rise and the banks were slippery and muddy.

According to reports there were marks on the river bank where he attempted to get back on the bank but was unable to grasp the brush or shrubbery on account of the muddy condition of the banks.

When Mr. Bussa did not return to the cotton patch, the other cotton choppers became uneasy and went to the river to search for him.

Sheriff Carl C. Black was called around 5:30 P. M. and a searching party consisting of Pat Gleason, Billy Black, Buck Slavik, Dick Harris, Rush Hariston and Dean White and John Eanes and others combed the river for several hundred yards.

Mr. Gleason and Billy Black discovered the body lodged under some brush and branches about 15 yards from where he fell in the water.

Mr. Bussa is a native of Milam County, born March 13, 1889 and had lived in Cameron and the Ad Hall Community the major portion of his life. He was well known in the Ad Hall Community. He lived with his sister, Mrs. Seth Dees of Cameron.

Funeral services were held at the Liberty Church, Wednesday, May 30, at 2:30 P. M. Rev. Tommie Bouchard, pastor of the First Christian Church of Cameron officiated. Interment was in the Liberty Cemetery, with Marek-Burns making the arrangements.

Milano To Have Shed This Year

Plans for the proposed tomato shed for Cameron under the supervision of the Green Valley Produce Company did not materialize, according to Bill Arthur, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of the Green Valley Produce Company have been in the city at intervals for the past several weeks, considering the proposition of locating a green tomato shed for Cameron this season. Their decision was based on the fact that there is not an adequate number of tomatoes in the surrounding communities to justify a shed here.

Calvin Duncan, one of the representatives of the Green Valley Produce Company met with the directors of the Milano Tomato Producers Co-Op, Friday, May 25.

The Milano Co-Op agreed to lease to the Green Valley Produce Company the shed owned by the Co-Op at Milano for this season. Mr. Dunsan will be in charge of operations at the shed it was disclosed. He has had (turn to page eight)

Cotton Farmers Need Dry Weather

Cameron received .69 inch rain Thursday night. It was reported by L. W. Smith, water superintendent.

The light rainfall over the county during the past few weeks has been very helpful to the farmers but it has been indicated by a number of cotton farmers over the county that dry weather is needed at this time to keep down insect infestation.

According to weather reports rains are expected over the entire state in the next day or two.

The corn crop along with tomatoes, cantelopes and other truck crops are looking fine this year are also in need of sunshine.

If rainy weather continues to prevail tomato crops may develop the rust or other diseases that will injure their salable value.

July, August Draft Calls For 37,000

WASHINGTON, Bay 28— The Army Monday asked the Selective Service System to induct 15,000 draftees in July and 22,000 in August.

The double call brought the total of draftees requested since the start of the Korean war to 587,000, all for induction into the Army.

The two calls will maintain an average close to the 20,000 requested for June. In previous months, the draft calls were higher. They were 40,000 each for April and May while in January, February and March draftees were inducted at a rate of 80,000 a month.

The Army has now reached a strength of 1,500,000 men as compared to 600,000 before Korea, and hopes to maintain its strength by drafting 20,000 to 25,000 men a month.

A Tribute--

To Our Hospitals

Someone once said that all well people should visit a hospital occasionally to see how fortunate they are! When a friend or loved one is being tenderly cared for in one of our hospitals, then we understand the great importance of these institutions. Staffed with doctors, nurses, internes and all manner of life-saving equipment, the hospital is mercy headquarters for all who are suffering. We never cease to wonder at the modern miracles performed in our hospitals. Their work so largely unheralded. But their eagerness to bind up wounds and make men whole again goes on forever. What would we do without these havens of healing?

The Niley Smiths Return From Trip To Southern States

Mr and Mrs. Niley Smith, Sr. have returned from a pleasant trip with the Radio Station WFAA Southern Neighbors Farm Study Tour through nine States. Murray Cox, Agricultural Director of WFAA, his wife and small son, Jimmy and 125 other guests enjoyed the 16 day tour.

They traveled through nine Southern States and Cuba. On this tour they studied the progress of farm, dairy and cattle in Southern States. The Smiths said most of the land in the Southern States had been re-claimed and laid into beautiful fertile pastures and farms. They said the farm pastures in the Southern States were just beautiful and also the blue grass at Lexington, Kentucky and their many fine horses.

They also enjoyed visiting the citrus orchard at Florida and the beautiful peach orchids at South Carolina.

Sightseeing through many States they did not stop was most interesting. The Chamber of Commerce of the following States; Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, Florida, South and North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky were very hospitable and furnished enjoyable entertainment.

The tour was made by train, all pullman and very comfortable. The Smiths occupied a drawing room, sleeping on the train and eating their meals out. At Miami the guests boarded the S. S. Florida and enjoyed a visit at Havana, Cuba.

At Knoxville, Tenn., the Smiths met one of Mr Smith's old schoolmates who is dean of Agriculture at the University of Tennessee. They graduated together at A & M College and he and his wife entertained the Smiths while at Knoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith said they enjoyed the trip and sightseeing through the beautiful country and the Southern hospitality.

Certificates Are Awarded Monday

Sixteen persons qualified for standard Red Cross certificates in first aid Monday evening at the class conducted by Miss Dallye Young in the gymnasium. Several other persons had attended various sessions of the 18 hour course but missed too many hours to qualify for the certificate. Plans have been made for any one of the standard certificate holders from this class or any other person in this county holding a standard certificate, to attend an advanced Red Cross first aid course beginning next Monday evening in the Denson clinic at 7 p. m. Miss Young will also give her time as instructor of that class. She is P. E. Instructor of Yoe High School and will attend Baylor University this summer.

Following the advanced course there will be an instructor's course given by a field representative of the Red Cross. Persons already holding instructor certificates may renew them or any person holding the advanced First Aid Certificates may take the work when the course is offered.

First aid, described by Red Cross as being the immediate and temporary care given the victim of an accident or sudden illness until the services of a physician can be obtained, is important in normal times because of the thousands of accidents and injuries occurring daily in this country. While there have been 10,000 Americans killed in the Korean War, there have been 10 for each one to die from accidents and other causes at home. These facts were pointed out by Locke L. Mouton who was here from Galveston on Monday evening as a representative of the first aid, water safety and accident prevention service of American National Red Cross.

First aid in case of an atomic bomb would be especially valuable and many trained workers would be needed. With the advanced course there will be given something of methods to be used in treating persons injured by atomic bombs. Mr. Mouton said that Phillip Colwell, head of civil defense work in this country, has said that Russia is known to have enough atomic bombs available at the present to bomb every major American city at the same time and that the most warning that can be hoped for in case of an attack is 10 minutes. Whereas the old type 500 pound bomb killed 12 or 13 persons and the 2,000 pound blockbuster bomb killed 33 persons, the atomic bomb kills 75,000.

Dr. J. L. Walker spoke to the first Aid Class on the physicians angle of first aid and also emphasized the importance of correct handling of accident victims and those suddenly ill. Both Dr. and Mrs. Walker participated in rescue and treatment of the injured at Texas City after the disaster there and he spoke from experience when he told of the importance of preparing oneself to act in an emergency.

Persons quaiifying for standard certificates Monday evening were: Mesdames John H. Davis, Jack DuBois, Mary Young Green, Conrad Jekel Jr., Ben Reichert, A. E. Sanders, Peral Williams of Milano; J. L. Walker, Misses Emma Hardie of Rockdale, Anna Lee Kirk; Messrs. J. B. Short of Marlow, F. J. Gregory; and these Boy Scouts; Lee Polansky, Bobby Balhorn, Paul Dillon and John D. Reichert.

Following the advanced course, there will be an instructor course given by field representatives of the Red Cross here if there is enough interest shown. Miss Young or Mesdames Grady Stidham, Jack Walker or Ben Reichert will turn in names for the instructor course.

Splints and improvised litters were shown the first aid class by Miss Young on Monday evening. The importance of keeping a simple fracture of a bone from becoming a compound fracture was emphasized as she showed her class how to support the injured member with a splint to prevent further damage until the bone can be set. A simple break heals much more rapidly than the ugly jagged break which often has the bone protruding through the skin from a compound fracture.

Several Boy Scouts have joined the class and took the examination with the group on Monday evening. Dr. J. L. Walker will assist with the class at the final session Monday, May 28.

For Worthy Causes

The D.A.V. is sponsoring a flag sale it was announced by Walter Lester.

The organization has purchased a number of flags and anyone desiring a flag may contact Mr. Lester or Herbert Nance.

There are two sizes of flags, one that may be used for the business area of the city and any merchant who does not have a flag or has an old one that has seen its best days, is welcomed to purchase one of the new flags. The D. A. V. is offering also in the sale, a flag suitable for the home. In many of the cities over the state of Texas, flags can be seen flying in the front yards.

Next Wednesday, May 30, Flag Day and also Memorial Day and every home as well as every place of business should have "Old Glory" flying. Flags should be flown oftener to exemplify our patriotism and our belief in Democracy. Members of the D. A. V. have indicated that flags should be flown at regular intervals throughout the year.

A flag holder may be purchased along with the flags that are ideal for the home use for flying the flag. The flags sold by the D. A. V. are very pretty and run as large as 3x5 feet which is very suitable for the mercantile area of the city.

The proceeds received in the sale of flags will go for a number of worthy causes outlined in the good work the organization does each year. The veterans urged all who would like to have or need a new flag to contact any member of the organization or see Mr. Nance and Mrs. Lester.

Copies Of Price
Regulation 34 Are Available At Chamber

Copies of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 are available in the office of the Chamber of Commerce. Copies of this regulation may be obtained by coming by the chamber office.

This regulation removes certain services from the coverage of the General Regulation and brings them under this regulation. Some of the service establishments affected by Regulation 34 will be Laundries, dry cleaners, shoe repair, electrical appliance dealers, automobile repairs, furniture repairs, upholstery and drapery installation, beauty parlors, barbers and many others.

A seller covered by this regulation must prepare on or before June 16, 1951 a statement, in duplicate, giving an adequate description of each service performed and his ceiling prices or rates. The regulation further provides that on and after May 16, 1951, regardless of any contract or other obligation, a seller may not sell or buy any service higher than the ceiling price.

Copies of Regulation 10 governing the ceiling soaps, soap suds and cleanser or scouring powders are also available in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Business establishments that have not filed the above regulation with the Houston Office of Price Stabilization, are advised to do so as soon as possible.

Killeen Man Elected
Eleventh District
Commander At Marlin

Jack Levy of Killeen was recently elected commander of the 11th District American Legion at the Marlin Convention.

Mr. Levy succeeds W. P. Hogan of Rockdale, who was endorsed as a candidate for division commander.

W. W. Wendland of Temple was named adjutant and John Bilbrow of Waco, sergeant-at-arms. New officers will assume office at the State Convention August 17-19.

O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Prison System, gave the main address. He was introduced by H. H. Coffield, of Rockdale, member of the Texas Prison Board.

Mr. Ellis gave a talk on the improvements that have been made at the state's prison during the past few years.

Entertainment was furnished by the prison system band, the Goree girl's chorus and a group of women from the women's prison at Goree.

40 Parking Meters
To Be Installed

Forty new parking meters recently arrived and are now at the City Hall ready for installation, according to city secretary, W. H. Stafford at the City Hall. Mr. Stafford said the police committee would meet soon and designate the proper places to install the meters and this would be taken care as soon as possible. These additional meters are greatly needed in some sections of town and Mrs. Canasta's chances at free parking space is being "whittled down" so to speak.

A few months ago at a meeting of the official family there was considerable discussion about the placing of meters around the Court House.

At that particular meeting some of the aldermen were of the opinion that the sidewalks and street belong to the city. Other Aldermen did not make a statement as to whom this property belonged.

This should cause considerable excitement among the City and County officials and just what the outcome will be remains to be seen.

If meters are installed around the Court House, Mr. Canasta will have to feed the "Kitty" and that might be hard on his "ulcers."

Just "Can't Get Over"
Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-falutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place — just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick—even a shoat couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-offer" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.

Good Cucumbers Now Coming In

The Cucumber Shed operated by the Texas Pickle Company of Weimar has announced its opening and farmers who have contracts with the company may now bring in their cucumbers, it was disclosed by Walter Lester.

The shed is located in Santa Fe Town at the former location of the Dink's Second Hand Store on South College Street. There was approximately 1000 pounds delivered to the shed on Monday May 28, and the prices are per contract.

The cucumbers coming in are of good quality and farmers who entered the cucumber program this year are very well pleased with everything generally. Around 45 acres of cucumbers were planted this year by farmers who signed up for the program.

Farmers taking part in the program this year will realize a considerable amount of income as the prices on cucumbers are good this season, and those who entered the program are very enthusiastic over the good crop and weather conditions for cucumber production have been ideal so far this season.

It was estimated that several hundred thousand pounds of cucumbers will be harvested in the immediate surrounding areas within the next few weeks, and a quick turnover in income always results in a good cucumber crop. If good results continue through the remainder of the season, there is a great possibility that more farmers will be encouraged to enter the program in future years.

Income derived from any agricultural source always stimulates trade activity in any community. More programs of this type should be advocated by the businessmen of Cameron in order to maintain a consistent flow of income, coming into the city by which the merchants will profit.

The present investigation of racketeers reminds one of the bank cashier who ran off with $50,000, stole his best friend's girl—and the only concern the people had was over who was going to teach his Sunday school class.

L. J. Werner of Houston was a visitor in the Herald office the past Saturday.

July 2 Deadline For Price Reports

An extension until July 2 of the deadline for filing reports under the government's general manufacturer's order, Ceiling Price Regulation 22, the machinery manufacturer's order, CPR 30, and the textile manufacturer's order, CPR 37, was announced by Charles H. Winerich, Jr. director of the Houston District Office of Price Stabilization.

At the same time, Fred C. Hopkins, district OPS price executive emphasized that no further extension would be considered on these 3 orders. Manufacturers covered by them re urged to submit their reports as quickly as possible so that they may be able to start pricing under the new regulation.

The extension order provides that manufacturers who file reports under any of the orders have the option to start using new ceilings May 28. However, no price increase can be put into effect until 15 days after filings with OPS.

CPRs 22, 30 and 37 permit producers to stop pricing under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, the freeze at highest prices charged between December 19 and January 25, and to charge pre-Korean selling prices, plus actual increases in factory labor and material costs between that period and certain specified cut-off dates.

Under the orders it is anticipated that some manufacturers will be permitted increases to relieve them from "squeezes" caused by rising costs since last June, while others, whose increased prices have exceeded their increased costs, will be forced to roll prices back years of experience in this kind of work and will also operate a shed at Lott.

The Gause shed will operate again this season under the supervision of Mr. Hogg.

Tomato producers in this area were highly enthusiastic over the possibility of locating a shed in Cameron as there is considerable expense transporting their produce to distant markets. However, Milano is not too far away.

In order to strengthen their tomato market with out-of-state buyers tomato producers in this area as well as other areas over the state have petitioned the Commissioner of Agriculture to stiffen the maturity regulation for selling their tomato crop. Farmers are urged not to pick their tomatoes until the proper stage of development or the tomatoes will be marked "culls" and sold at cull prices.

Immature tomatoes should not be harvested as farmers do not get the full value of their produce. Immature tomatoes do not have well developed seed cavities or have a jelly like consistency and the seeds are not developed. All farmers should give occasional "knife-tests" to determine seed and cavity development.

To get desired maturity will mean that producers are to leave tomatoes on the vine an extra day or two, then they will have a quality product that will please all buyers.

In the past the temptation has been great for growers to harvest and sell their tomatoes early at a high price level and to avoid possible price break and weather hazards but this can be overcome by the grading system, however when there is an abundance of tomatoes, tomato shed operators may utilize their authority excessively as to whether the tomatoes are culls or in the salable bracket.

Northern and Eastern Buyers know the quality of the Milam County tomato and many cargoes are shipped out each year to these distant markets.

Income from the sale of tomatoes of Milam County farmers rates high in the income bracket of products produced in this county.

saying that anyone who has not been contacted or has decided they want service and has not signed up to please notify Mr. Barnes or Mr. Keller at Hotel Cameron.

Mr. Carson said the project is being carried out as rapidly as possible and through the cooperation of all, service will be available.

Rural subscribers must realize that it takes a lot of time and planning to map out and outline a program of this type and the telephone company is doing everything it can do to expedite the present plans for rural service to other communities surrounding Cameron.

At the same time rural citizens are expecting Southwestern Bell Telephone Company to continue construction until the proposed job is completed and all rural service is in operation from the local exchange.

Up to the present there has been 335 subscribers contacted and a total of 209 have signed up for rural service. There are a few more potential subscribers that will probably sign up within the next few days. It was hoped that the figure would run as high as 225.

Mr. McKee has been affiliated with the J. C. Penney Company for the past fourteen years and has been with the Temple firm for three years. He and Mrs. McKee will be in Cameron the latter part of the week and are looking for a place to live.

Close Vote Cast In Saturday Election

The Briary Community voted to Consolidate with the Rosebud Independent School District, Saturday May 26, it was disclosed by Hinton Public Schools.

The ballot read: For the Consolidation With the Rosebud Independent School District and Against the Consolidation of the Rosebud Independent School District. The election carried by a 17 to 11 vote.

There has been considerable discussion among residents of the Briary community for the past several weeks about the election concerning the consolidation movement.

A public community meet was held recently at the Briary School to inform residents of that community as what legally happens to a school place.

The people of the Briary community have spoken and Briary will now be under the jurisdiction of the Falls County School system.

Whether or not pupils in that community can transfer to the Cameron Schools will lie with the authority of the Falls County School Board. It was understood that a number of students from the Briary Community want to continue to come to school in Cameron, this was indicated by the close vote.
